SafeZone

Heriot-Watt University Malaysia is the first university in Asia to use SafeZone and provides all Heriot-Watt staff and students with the same level of support regardless of which campus they are working on.

SafeZone is an essential component of Heriot-Watt's new security service and is being fully integrated across all campuses with all security officers using SafeZone's OmniGuard app on their smartphones. Any requests for assistance are handled by competent first aiders who, as first responders, will have a display of the SafeZone Omniguard app to monitor activations on and off campus.

The primary role of SafeZone is to support staff and students while they are on campus or travelling, or during fieldwork but it also gives Heriot-Watt the flexibility to geofence additional areas as required.

The University's intention is to make the use of SafeZone best practice for any students or staff travelling on university business.
