COURSE AIMS

The central aims of the course are to provide background understanding of the nature and value of entrepreneurship in economies, and to encourage thinking about ideas including ideas development and refinement, considerations of the commercial world, creativity and innovation.

In addition the course aims to:

- engage with University strategy to increase commercial and applied study and employability and enterprise agendas
- contribute teaching and learning provision to EBS’ strategic goals of developing entrepreneurial capabilities and support for entrepreneurship
- afford interaction amongst high calibre students, most often established in careers, thereby facilitating knowledge exchange amongst them
- provide commercial and business training and support
- augment potential for commercialisation of ideas, including the potential for student spin outs and start-ups and facilitating liaison with external bodies.
