1. INTRODUCTION

The University's development plan at the Edinburgh campus incorporates the concept of a traffic-free area within the centrally placed academic, social and residential developments. Provision is made for essential servicing of buildings without the intrusion of vehicles into the central zones of the campus. The road system therefore consists of a peripheral road with spur roads from it to service yards, meeting the needs of individual buildings or group of buildings. The parking of a motorised vehicle is restricted to the approved and authorised car parks or parking areas. The need to preserve traffic-free zones within the central areas of campus implies that staff, students and visitors may be required to park some distance from their actual destination. The successful operation of this policy depends on good road sense and co-operation from the whole of the University community and visitors. Personnel intending to drive and / or park a motorised vehicle on campus are to read this policy and (Traffic Management and Parking Procedure):

All vehicles parked on campus must be insured for at least third party fire & theft and be registered with the DVLA as having a valid road fund licence.
