All applicants will initially be registered on the Postgraduate Certificate in Business Research Methods. This consists of the three Doctoral Business Research courses that make up the course stage of the DBA programme. Upon completion of the courses and submission of a viable research idea, you will be transferred to the DBA programme.

Academic and Professional Qualifications

Please ensure that you submit a certified colour copy of your Masters degree certificate and transcript of subjects studied and grades obtained (for all years of study), translated into English where appropriate, to the address on the front of the form. Alternatively we can accept a copy of your transcript sent direct from the institution who awarded you the degree to ourselves, either by post or email.
