

HERIOT-WATT UNIVERSITY MALAYSIA CHANGES TO PROGRAMMES/COURSES

HWUM changes to programmes/courses

- Before being implemented or advertised at HWUM all changes to programmes and courses must be notified to the Malaysian Qualifications Agency (MQA) OR Ministry of Higher Education (MOHE). Depending on the level/type of change, approval may also be required.
- Timeline – consideration should be given to the type of change to ensure that approval is secured before implementation eg Programme Title - approval can take up to 18 months. Please refer to category of curriculum change.

Programme/Course Change Process

HWU Approval – School and Studies Committee

- School discusses proposed changes with Academic colleagues at HWUM and creates a modification on PAMS.
- School contacts Academic Registry (Q&EP) to inform of ALL proposed programme/course changes before School Studies Committee (SSC) approval and advises that the modification has been created on PAMS
- Discussions held between School and Academic Registry (Q&EP) regarding implications of MQA/MOHE approval timelines, the level & MQA/MOHE category of change and the appropriate MQA/MOHE documentation to be completed.

Changes not affecting the HWU programme description template

- Once SSC approval has been given, PAMS modification approved by School and sent to Academic Registry (Q&EP) for information.

Changes affecting the HWU programme description template

- Once SSC approval has been given, PAMS modification approved by School and sent to Academic Registry (Q&EP) for submission to University Studies Committee for approval.

MQA/MOHE Notification/Approval

School in collaboration with HWUM Academic colleagues completes MQA/MOHE approval documentation and updates MQA course descriptors as necessary.

- School sends documentation to Academic Registry (Q&EP) for review.
