Declaration of Eligibility to work in the United Kingdom

CASUAL APPOINTMENTS

UK Immigration legislation, in particular the Immigration, Asylum and Nationality Act 2006, is designed to prevent illegal working in the UK. To prevent illegal working it is necessary that employers carry out document checks on all prospective employees. These checks are required to ensure that employees demonstrate that they are eligible to work in the UK and apply to all potential employees and workers (including casual workers), regardless of nationality or eligibility type.

Before we can offer you work of any kind, you must provide documentary evidence that you are eligible to work in the UK and that the work we are offering you meets the terms of any visa or restriction you may have.

We must see original documents so that we can photocopy relevant pages as proof of eligibility. Therefore you cannot start work until we have seen the required documents. If you are unable to provide documentation that establishes your right to work in the UK or your eligibility to work in a specific role, the University reserve the right to withdraw any offer of casual work or terminate the arrangements. The documents we need to see are listed at the end of this form.
