A programme of short, focused workshops for staff and students. Delivered by subject experts from across the university they are a great way to develop the skills you need to support your studies, teaching and research.

Choose from:

- Academic Writing
- Citing, Referencing and Avoiding Plagiarism
- Finding and Evaluating Information
- IT workshops
- Presentations and Posters
- Study and Lifestyle Tips
- Workshops for Staff & Postgraduate Research Students

Power Hours last 1 or 2 hours and we also have Power Bites which are 30 minute sessions. Most workshops are repeated throughout the Semester and are held in the Edinburgh Campus Library (top floor) in either the Anderson Room or the Library Teaching Room.

Booking is required for all workshops and we operate a waiting list: http://hw.ac.libcal.com/

PhD students should also check the Research Futures programme provided by ALD: www.hw.ac.uk/research/ald.htm

For workshop descriptions, presenter details, dates and times see: www.hw.ac.uk/is/skills-development/power-hours.htm

What participants have said about the Power Hour Workshops?

- Absolutely more confident after this.
- Clearly, laughs and questions answered well.
- I’ll be coming back to the other workshops.
- Keep up the good work! I love the Power Hours.
- The training style is great. Learner is helpful and approachable.
- Great presentation and comprehensive support (even post workshop so far at HWU).
- Very well explained, good amount of time to ask questions.

In 2015/16 we had over 900 attendances

98% would recommend the workshop to others (682 respondents)

94% agree or strongly agree that the workshop helped them with their studies/research/teaching (775 respondents)
In-class teaching, workshops or support on request

Staff
Arrange a class for your students
We can deliver a session specifically for your class/group, either in the Library or as part of the timetable within the School.
Book an appointment for yourself
If you would like to discuss how IS can support your teaching or research please get in touch.

Students
Arrange a class for a group of friends/classmates
If your whole class or some of your classmates would benefit from a Power Hour session, either let your lecturer know or if you would prefer to arrange it yourself, get in touch.
Book an appointment for yourself
Maybe you have missed a session or need a refresher on something you have been told about before - don't struggle!

Get in touch to discuss your requirements libhelp@hw.ac.uk
Appointments can be face-to-face or online.

Online learning and IS Guides
Power Hours
Many of the workshop materials are available online in the Power Hours Workshops organisation in Vision.

Skills for Success
A resource to support undergraduate students on all campuses, studying full or part time, or by distance learning. Skills for Success will help you:
• Find high quality academic sources for your assignments - and use them appropriately in your coursework and assignments.
• Use desktop software to prepare and present your work.
• Develop good study and organisation skills.
Skills for Success is available in 'My Organisations' in Vision.

IS Guides
Subject guides
For information on locating, searching and accessing resources for your subject
User guides & handouts
Printable PDFs helping you use IS resources and services
Video guides
Video clips demonstrating IS resources and services.
See www.hw.ac.uk/is/is-guides.htm

European Computer Driving Licence (ECDL)
Staff and students at the university can register with us and sit ECDL examinations on the Edinburgh campus.
The ECDL is managed and promoted in the United Kingdom by the British Computer Society (BCS) on behalf of the ECDL Foundation. We are an A-Status, BCS-accredited Test Centre for ECDL.
See www.hw.ac.uk/is/skills-development/ecdladvanced-ecdl.htm

Skills Development
Information for Staff and Students
Information Services offer a comprehensive skills development programme to support learning, teaching and research activities which includes:
• Our programme of workshops (Power Hours)
• In-class teaching, workshops or support on request
• Online learning and IS Guides
Full details can be found at: www.hw.ac.uk/is/skills-development.htm