

MONITORING AND REVIEW PROCESSES

Monitoring and Review Processes

Annual Monitoring and Periodic Review processes underpin the assurance of academic standards and enhancement of quality across the University. The key processes are:

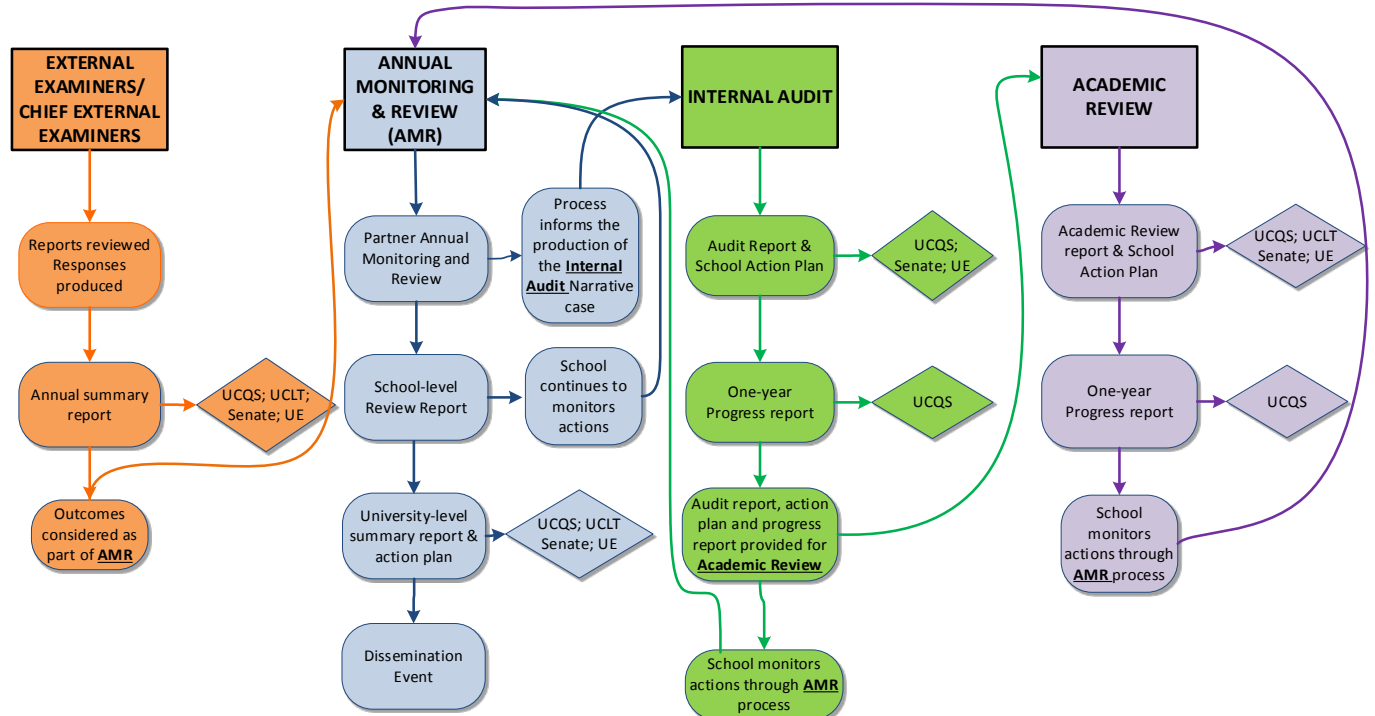

- External Examiners / Chief External Examiners
- Annual Monitoring and Review
- Internal Audit
- Academic Review

Summary Diagram

The diagram below summarises the key Annual Monitoring and Periodic Review processes and how:

- they relate to one another.
- outcomes are reported through the University Committee structure.

These processes apply across all of the University's academic provision and across all modes and locations of study.
