Management of Multi-Location, Multi-Mode Programmes: Policy on Programme Titles, Learning Outcomes and Courses

In May 2012, the University Executive approved a Policy on Programme Titles, Learning Outcomes and Courses, which sets out permitted and non-permissible variation between programmes offered in different locations and modes.

The policy has been extracted from the University's Code of Practice for the Management of Multi-Location, Multi-Mode Programmes. The policy aims to assure quality and standards across all versions of a programme, and to put in place the consistency and standardisation required by overseas accrediting authorities.

The policy was implemented with immediate effect, from 1 June 2012. The policy applies to undergraduate and postgraduate taught programmes.

Key Principles

The policy comprises several key principles, covering Programme, Stage and Course:

Programme

Across all versions, multi-location/multi-mode programmes must have:

- identical programme learning outcomes, core knowledge, skills and competencies
- identical programme/award titles

Stage

Across all versions, multi-location/multi-mode undergraduate programmes must have:

- identical learning outcomes, core knowledge, skills and competencies at each stage of study

Course

Across all versions, multi-location/multi-mode programmes:

- must have the same mandatory courses. Local variation in content is permitted, but the learning outcomes must be identical
- may offer different options, provided that stage and programme learning outcomes remain identical
- must comprise courses with identical learning outcomes and core curriculum. Content and form of assessment may be varied

Malaysia Award/Programme Titles

A temporary difference is permitted between award/programmes titles at the Malaysia Campus and other modes/locations in view of the fact that there can be a time delay between HWU approval and MoHE approval of changes to titles. Titles must be aligned following MoHE approval. In all other respects, HWUM programmes must adhere to the principles above.
