Academic Integrity and Professionalism

“Academic Integrity and the path to a professional, globally employable graduate.”

Name
Role
Date
“Learning with Integrity”

‘a commitment, even in the face of adversity, to six fundamental values: honesty, trust, fairness, respect, responsibility and courage. From these values flow principles of behaviour that enable academic communities to translate ideals to action’ (ICAI)
Why does Academic Integrity Matter?

Integrity is a core Professional Value
It matters to You

Self-Respect ➔ Being the best you can be ➔ Your Professional Values
It matters to You

- Self-Respect
- Being the best you can be
- Your Professional Values

It matters to the University

- Integrity and Quality
- Fairness to all
- A Degree of Integrity
It matters to You

- Self-Respect
- Being the best you can be
- Your Professional Values

It matters to the University

- Integrity and Quality
- Fairness to all
- A Degree of Integrity

It matters to Employers and Society

- Respected Degrees
- Respected Graduates
- Trust in trained Professionals
Accreditation Requirements

Professional bodies expect Universities to uphold academic integrity and professional quality standards.
Graduate Attributes:
Professionally Educated, Globally Employable

https://www.hw.ac.uk/uk/services/academic-registry/quality/learning-teaching/graduate-attributes.htm
Any questions or comments

Academic Integrity Matters