Power Hours
Workshop Programme
2014-15 (Semester 1)
Edinburgh Campus Library

HERIOT
WATT
UNIVERSITY

WHAT?
The Power Hours programme offers a range of workshops aimed at enhancing information, research, study and IT skills. Choose from a variety of topics - from finding information online to preparing for exams and from essay writing to coping with stress.
Power Hours are provided by Information Services and delivered by specialist staff from across the University. More information, slides, additional learning materials and presenter details are available online. See www.hw.ac.uk/is/skills-development/power-hours.htm

WHERE?
The sessions are all held in the Anderson Room or the adjacent Library Teaching Room, both on the top floor of the Edinburgh Campus Library (local notices will direct you to the appropriate room).
Learning materials from the workshops can be found in the Power Hours Workshops organisation in Vision at <https://vision.hw.ac.uk/>

FOR WHO?
Most sessions are open to all students and staff. Workshops for specific audiences are clearly marked.
Staff involved in teaching or research and PhD students may also be interested in sessions run by the Centre for Academic Leadership and Development at www.hw.ac.uk/research/ald/academic-development.htm

WHEN?
Most sessions are held at lunchtimes or in the afternoons. Many sessions are repeated throughout the semester. If you can't attend, slides and other materials are available online for most sessions.

DO I HAVE TO BOOK?
Booking is required for some sessions and some require notes of interest before being scheduled. These sessions are clearly marked in the brochure. For all other sessions, there is no need to book and you can just come along on the day.

SUGGEST A WORKSHOP
If the topic you want isn't covered in our programme, let us know and we can look in to providing it.
Email Thelp@hw.ac.uk with your suggestion.
