Examples of how to upload files

Below are some examples of the types of files that you can upload for your assignment. You can upload a range of file types including MS Word files, PDF files and image files. If you have handwritten your answers, you can take photos of your work and convert them to a single PDF file using a freely available mobile app such as CamScanner.

Uploading a text file

To upload a text file, browse your computer and select the file to upload. The filename will be listed in the text box next to the option to 'Open' (see image below).

Uploading an image file

If you have handwritten your answers, you can take photos of your work and convert them to a single PDF file using a freely available mobile app such as CamScanner. Alternatively, follow the steps below to upload an image file.

To upload an image file (e.g. photos of a hand-written exam script), again browse your computer, select the file to upload and check the filename is correct before selecting 'Open' (see image below).

Uploading multiple image files

If you have handwritten your answers, you can take photos of your work and convert them to a single PDF file using a freely available mobile app such as CamScanner. Alternatively, follow the steps below to upload multiple image files.

To upload multiple image files, there are two methods: (1) copy your images into a zipped folder and (2) paste your images into a Word document.

1. Copy your images into a zipped folder

Create a zipped folder by browsing to the folder with your assignment files in Windows Explorer. Right-click on white space within the folder, select 'New' and then select 'Compressed (zipped) Folder' (see image below).

To upload a zipped file, follow the same procedure as for uploading a text or image file.

2. Paste your images into a Word document

Alternatively, you can copy your images into a Word document, using 'Insert' > 'Pictures' and selecting the images from your folder.

Uploading a combination of image and text files

To upload a combination of image and text files, follow the same procedure as uploading multiple image files (above). Ensure that all the files to be uploaded are contained in your zipped file before uploading.
